

Medical Treatment Laws - Update on changes and implications for Health and Legal Professionals

The workshop will cover:

Legislation changes and what they mean in reality:

- Medical powers of attorney
- Assisted Dying
- Advanced care directives

Medical Power of Attorney:

- Patient, carer and family rights and responsibilities
- Responsibilities of health professionals
- Responsibilities of the legal profession

Advance Care Plan :

- Patient, carer and family rights and responsibilities
- Responsibilities of health professionals
- Responsibilities of the legal profession

Speakers :

Sophie Bolzonello and Felicity Iredale from Russell Kennedy Lawyers, Melbourne

Melissa Couch, Advance Care Planning Project Officer, South West Healthcare.

Date: Monday 14th May, 2018

Time: Session 2—Health Professionals 13.30 to 14.45 pm

Session 3— Health and Legal Professionals 15.30 to 16.30pm

Location: Seminar Room, Community Health, Ryot Street, Warrnambool

Cost: No cost

Registration: No Registration required

For further Details Contact: Erin Weston

Email: esweston@swh.net.au

Phone: 03 5563 4072